

DARREN CHURCHWARD

I am a seasoned statistician and researcher with expertise in health research and data analysis. I have led analytical teams at the Ministry of Justice, focusing on prison-related issues, and managed COVID-19 data in senior roles. My background includes research positions at Ofqual and the University of Leicester, where I honed my skills in study design, data analysis, and statistical reporting. I hold an MRes in Applied Health Research and have completed an MSc level modules in Medical Statistics, showcasing my strong analytical and research capabilities.

EDUCATION

2016
|
2014
